Temporary Judge Training – Bench Conduct

Saturday, March 29, 2014

San Bernardino Superior Court
172 W. 3rd Street – Second floor
San Bernardino, CA

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. – Bench Conduct, Demeanor, and Decorum
Training conducted by Judge Kyle Brodie and Commissioner Ronald J. Gilbert

Pursuant to CRC 2.815 there are three mandatory education and training requirements for attorneys to serve as a temporary judge, and the training must repeated every three years. The first requirement is the Bench Conduct, Demeanor, and Decorum training which the Superior Court will conduct live on March 29, 2014. The second and third requirements are substantive training in the subject area in which the attorney will serve as a temporary judge, and judicial ethics; both can be completed online at www2.courtinfo.ca.gov/protem/.

Training will include:

- Bench Conduct, Demeanor, and Decorum*

MCLE Credits – 3

This course is mandatory for all attorneys serving as temporary judges and required if you have not taken it within the last three years. This course will not be offered online and is a required live participatory workshop. If you are currently serving as a temporary judge and your previous certificate is set to expire within the next year, it is recommended that you sign up.

Pre-registration is required. No Cost to participants.
