

EXHIBIT A: STATEMENT OF WORK

1. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1.1 Production.

- (a) Contractor will process, daily or weekly, electronic data provided by the Court (“Court Data”) for the purpose of producing and mailing personalized mailing documents (hereinafter referred to as “mailers”) for the Court’s jury and traffic departments. On occasions do a mass production for other case types. The Court Data will identify the variable data to be printed on each mailer; personal information of each prospective juror and defendant, which specific mailer is required, and the pertinent information to be included on that mailer for each prospective juror and defendant. Note: the Court will designate by file name each file types for upload.
- (b) Contractor will provide the Court with a chart of critical dates for each phase of its production and mailing processes to facilitate the efficient and timely completion of Work.
- (c) Contractor will produce all mailers to meet or exceed all United States Postal Service (USPS) requirements for 1st Class mail.
- (d) Contractor will perform some calculations as needed prior to printing forms.

1.2 Mailing.

- (a) Contractor will mail, daily or weekly, each mailer to the prospective juror or defendant named thereon, except to any individual who is eliminated as a result of performing an address correction procedure equivalent to the National Change of Address (NCOA) program to reduce the number of incorrect addresses to which mailers are sent.
- (b) Contractor will not mail any mailer that is identified by the NCOA or equivalent as having incorrect address information, and will upload a CSV data file to the Court that contains the juror or defendant’s name and incorrect address information.
- (c) Contractor will monitor and take full advantage of any and all available USPS compliant postal processing services to reduce the cost of postage and ensure the lowest possible postage rates, including but not limited to USPS Full-Service Intelligent Mail or Secure Destruction.
- (d) Guaranteed Mailing Requirements: 100% of all pieces must be tracked through production and mailed. All summonses damaged during manufacturing must be immediately reprocessed and mailed at no charge.

1.3 Quality Control. Contractor will use stringent quality control protocols for accuracy, efficiency, cost effectiveness, duplicate file prevention, file integrity, date checks, and physical inspection of mailers.

1.4 Reporting. Contractor will provide the Court with documentation of the production and mailing processes of each mailer and shall return electronic data indicating any changes which may have occurred as a result of the various productions and mailing procedures.

1.5 Security Guarantees. Contractor will use data security procedures that meet or exceed the best practice security levels used for financial transactions to protect the privacy of individuals and integrity of the Court Data.

2. MAILERS

2.1 Appearance and Design. The Court will provide Contractor with the constant design layout of each mailer. The appearance quality of each mailer must meet or exceed the quality produced by a standard laser printer printing at 600 DPI. The Court reserves the right to approve preprinted form colors and print color(s) on all mailers. Bidder may not suggest any changes to the Court's format in their proposal.

- (a) Jury. Each jury mailer must contain a juror identification number along with a variable barcode imprinted inside each document, personalized to each individual prospective juror.

San Bernardino, CA 92415-0244

JID#: 017189049

Our records reflect that you have failed to appear for jury service on two occasions; first pursuant to jury summons and then, after a follow-up "failure to appear" notice which summoned you again to appear on August 02, 2016.

All citizens are required by law to serve as jurors periodically unless they have a legal excuse, and the court is required to enforce this obligation.

California Code of Civil Procedure, Section 209, provides that:

'Any prospective trial juror who has been summoned for service, and who fails to attend upon the court as directed, ...may be attached and compelled to attend; and following an order to show cause hearing, the court may find the prospective juror in contempt of court, ...'

YOU ARE HEREBY ORDERED TO APPEAR before a Superior Court Judge on Thursday September 08, 2016 at 08:30 AM in Department 21 at the San Bernardino Justice Center 247 W Third St, San Bernardino CA 92415-0244 to give reason why you have not responded to being summoned for jury service. Failure to abide by this order may subject you to additional contempt sanctions.

YOU HAVE ANOTHER OPTION. We realize that extenuating circumstances may have prevented you from responding or appearing as requested. You may contact the Jury Administration Office between the hours 08:00 AM to 04:00 PM Monday through Friday at (909) 884-1858, to arrange for a date certain to appear for jury service. If you complete your service before the date to appear noted above, the proceedings against you will be dismissed and you will not have to appear in court on the above date. If you have a legal reason to be excused, please write it on the back of this letter along with a telephone number where we may contact you and return it before the court date listed above to Jury Administration, 247 W. Third Street - 1st Floor, San Bernardino, CA 92415-0244.

DO NOT contact the Jury Assembly Room to reschedule your appearance. This date will not be rescheduled.

YOU MUST GIVE THIS MATTER YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.

Very Truly Yours,

Eileen M. Stutson
Manager of Administrative Services

HOW TO PAY YOUR BAIL (unless your appearance is mandatory):

On or before the Due Date, you may send the full amount by mail. Please use the envelope provided and enclose the coupon on the reverse side of this notice along with your check or money order, made payable in US Funds to: San Bernardino Superior Court. Include case name and number. You may also pay the full bail amount in person at the address on the reverse side of this notice prior to your Due Date. Note that your citation can only be considered "paid" after the court receives the full amount. A $40.00 additional charge will be due for any check returned unpaid. To ask the court to consider your financial ability to pay your bail, you must appear before the Court, See Court Appearances.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS and EXTENSIONS:

Credit Card information can be entered on the coupon below and mailed using enclosed envelope.

Visit: WWW.SB-COURT.ORG to pay online and receive email notifications regarding payments.

You may also pay with your credit card or request one extension by telephone at:

(909) 481-4228 OR (760) 241-9529

You may call (909) 387-1470 during normal business hours to pay with your credit card or request one extension.

COURT APPEARANCES:

You do not have to appear if you choose to pay before the due date.

You may reserve a court appearance for arraignment. A deposit of bail is not required to appear in court. At an arraignment you will: enter your plea (guilty, no contest, not guilty); and/or request traffic school; and/or ask the court to consider your ability to pay due to financial hardship and decide whether to approve a reduced fine, payment plan or community service. If you plead not guilty, you will be given a date for trial. To appear before a judicial officer you will first reserve a court date using one of our "Reserve a Court Date" options: The court's public website, www.sb-court.org which can be accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; using the Kiosks located in courthouse lobbies, or contacting the clerk's office in person or by telephone.

NOTICE:

If you are eligible and decide not to attend traffic school your automobile insurance may be adversely affected. One conviction in any 18 month period will be held confidential and not show on your driving record if you complete a traffic violator school program. The 18 month eligibility period for a confidential conviction after completion of Traffic School, is determined from violation date to violation date. (Vehicle code Section 1803.5, 1808.7, 41501, and 42007)

To attend Traffic School: Check the box on the coupon provided on the reverse side, include the traffic school amount indicated, information about traffic school will be mailed to you or is available online @ www.sb-court.org. The fee is non-refundable. An additional fee may be charged by the individual traffic school. Please note: Seat Belt, Cell Phone Violations and speeding greater than 25 miles over posted speed limit are not traffic school eligible. You are not eligible for traffic school if you had a commercial driver's license and were driving a commercial vehicle when you were cited.

COURT TRIALS and TRIALS BY DECLARATION (TO CONTEST YOUR CITATION):

For information regarding a Court Trial (a trial where you appear and give live testimony before a judge or commissioner) or Trial by Declaration (a trial where you present your case by a sworn written declaration), please contact the Clerk's Office at the court location listed on the reverse side or visit the traffic division web page at <http://www.sb-court.org>

PROOF OF CORRECTION:

If you have been charged with a "correctable violation" your bail may be reduced if you provide the court with a "Proof of Correction." You can obtain proof of correction at any law enforcement office during normal business hours (take your original citation with you). Note: you will owe the court a processing fee per corrected violation, which must be paid at the time you submit the proof of correction to the court. If you choose not to obtain a proof of correction, then you must pay the full amount.

You may call (909) 387-1470 during normal business hours to pay with your credit card or request one extension.

COURT APPEARANCES:

You do not have to appear if you choose to pay before the due date.

You may reserve a court appearance for arraignment. A deposit of bail is not required to appear in court. At an arraignment you will: enter your plea (guilty, no contest, not guilty); and/or request traffic school; and/or ask the court to consider your ability to pay due to financial hardship and decide whether to approve a reduced fine, payment plan or community service. If you plead not guilty, you will be given a date for trial. To appear before a judicial officer you will first reserve a court date using one of our "Reserve a Court Date" options: The court's public website, www.sb-court.org which can be accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; using the Kiosks located in courthouse lobbies, or contacting the clerk's office in person or by telephone.

NOTICE:

If you are eligible and decide not to attend traffic school your automobile insurance may be adversely affected. One conviction in any 18 month period will be held confidential and not show on your driving record if you complete a traffic violator school program. The 18 month eligibility period for a confidential conviction after completion of Traffic School, is determined from violation date to violation date. (Vehicle code Section 1803.5, 1808.7, 41501, and 42007)

To attend Traffic School: Check the box on the coupon provided on the reverse side, include the traffic school amount indicated, information about traffic school will be mailed to you or is available online @ www.sb-court.org. The fee is non-refundable. An additional fee may be charged by the individual traffic school. Please note: Seat Belt, Cell Phone Violations and speeding greater than 25 miles over posted speed limit are not traffic school eligible. You are not eligible for traffic school if you had a commercial driver's license and were driving a commercial vehicle when you were cited.

COURT TRIALS and TRIALS BY DECLARATION (TO CONTEST YOUR CITATION):

For information regarding a Court Trial (a trial where you appear and give live testimony before a judge or commissioner) or Trial by Declaration (a trial where you present your case by a sworn written declaration), please contact the Clerk's Office at the court location listed on the reverse side or visit the traffic division web page at <http://www.sb-court.org>

PROOF OF CORRECTION:

If you have been charged with a "correctable violation" your bail may be reduced if you provide the court with a "Proof of Correction." You can obtain proof of correction at any law enforcement office during normal business hours (take your original citation with you). Note: you will owe the court a processing fee per corrected violation, which must be paid at the time you submit the proof of correction to the court. If you choose not to obtain a proof of correction, then you must pay the full amount.

PROOF OF CORRECTION:

Specific instructions for obtaining proof of correction for correctable violations are on the back of your citation. Have the violation(s) corrected and signed off by a police officer. Vehicle registration and driver license violations may also be signed off by the DMV or you may present proof to the clerk of the court. VC16028 (insurance) violations can only be dismissed upon proof to the clerk of the court of insurance coverage that was valid on the date of the citation. Your Violation is not eligible for Proof of Correction if N/A is printed in the Amount Due box. ($25.00 per correctable violation)

TO PAY YOUR TICKET (BAIL FORFEITURE):

You may pay and close this citation by bail forfeiture with no further action necessary. Upon payment of the “Amount Due” the case is closed and no further action is required. If reportable, the conviction will be forwarded to the DMV. If you are submitting proof of correction on a correctable violation and paying bail forfeiture for another violation, you will pay the “Amount Due with Proof of Correction of $25.00”

If you have financial hardship and can show that you are unable to pay the full amount of the offenses on your traffic ticket, you may request the court to consider your ability to pay in setting the fine amount. However, you must appear before the court to do so. Also, if you are ordered to pay a fine you may ask the court for an installment payment plan that is based on your ability to pay, or ask the court to approve community service due to financial hardship.

REQUEST AND RESERVE A COURT APPEARANCE:

Your appearance is: OPTIONAL

You may reserve a court appearance for arraignment. A deposit of bail is not required to appear in court. At an arraignment you will enter your plea (guilty, no contest, not guilty) OR REQUEST TRAFFIC SCHOOL. If you plead not guilty, you will be given a date for trial. To appear before a judicial officer you will first reserve a court date using one of our “Reserve a Court Date” options. These options include the court’s public website, www.sb-court.org which can be accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Reserving a court date can also be completed via Kiosks located in courthouse lobbies, as well as contacting the clerk’s office in person or by telephone.

TRAFFIC SCHOOL (Traffic School must be attended in the State of California):

A clerk may grant a request to attend traffic school for an eligible violation if you have not attended for a previous violation that occurred within 18 months of your present violation. You are not eligible for traffic school if you had a commercial driver’s license and were driving a commercial vehicle when you were cited.

NOTICE: If you are eligible and decide not to attend traffic school, your automobile insurance may be adversely affected and your option to attend may be limited if not taken at this time. One conviction in any 18-month period will be held confidential and not show on your driving record if you complete a traffic violator school program. All equipment or non-moving violations must be cleared and returned to the court prior to certification. Registration forms will be given or mailed to you upon receipt of your traffic school payment. There is an additional fee that the school will charge which is separate from the fee you pay the Court. If no amount appears in the “Amount Due for Traffic School” box, you are not eligible to attend traffic school.

TO PAY YOUR TICKET:

You may pay and close this citation with no further action necessary. Upon payment of the "Amount Due" the case is closed and no further action is required.

If you have a financial hardship and can show that you are unable to pay the full amount of the offenses on your traffic ticket, you may request the court to consider your ability to pay in setting the fine amount. However, you must appear before the court to do so. Also, if you are ordered to pay a fine you may ask the court for an installment payment plan that is based on your ability to pay, or ask the court to approve community service due to financial hardship.

REQUEST AND RESERVE A COURT APPEARANCE:

Your appearance is: OPTIONAL

To appear before the court, you will first reserve a court date by contacting the clerk's office in person or by telephone.

IF PAYMENT IS MADE AFTER THE DUE DATE, PAY TO:
